LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

M. E. Hickey entertained that interesting organization, the Ten Dons, at his home on North Walter street, last night.

The entertainment committee of the Commercial club announces the club's annual Christmas dance for Wednesday, a week from tonight. The occasion promises to be something of an event in Albuquerque society. Elaborate preparations are being made.

Adolfo Vallejos, the native who stole a bicycle early yesterday morning and was in the act of riding it home to Barajas, when arrested by Officer Highberger, was sentenced to do a term of sixty days in the county jail by Police Judge Crawford yesterday.

Judge A. J. Abbott, of Santa Fe, attorney for the Pueblos, returned home yesterday morning after disposing of the case against Jose Perilla, an Isleta Indian, who was under indictment for stealing company material from the Santa Fe. Perilla, who is also possessed of a jaw-breaking Indian name, plead guilty and was fined $5 and costs.

A letter was received from the mayor of Ypsilanti, Mich., yesterday morning by O. W. Strong's Sons, containing a photograph of Thomas M. Thompson, the man who died recently from exposure, while on the way from Gallup to this city. The identification is now complete and the remains will probably be sent to the old home for burial.

Charles Schafer, of the Santa Fe depot office of the railway postoffice, has secured a position at Sacramento, Cal., on the Oroville and Sacramento branch of the service and has left with his family for that point. W. T. Darrow, who has been the railway mail service agent out of this city for several months past, has taken the depot job.

Numerous complaints have been registered of late that hunters are slaughtering turtle doves in violation of the territorial game law, which specifies that doves may be killed only in August and September. Parties of hunters have been seen out almost every day in the vicinity of the stockyards and elsewhere in the valley north and south of the city. The game warden's attention has been called to the matter and there will probably be some arrests.

Many New Mexico natives are returning from the beet harvest in Colorado, and every train for El Paso contains one or more cars of them. The local depot is filled to the doors with them each evening and there is scarcely room to get around. The majority of them spend quite a sum of money in this city and they all seem to be in the best of spirits over their summer's work.

The first of a series of suppers to be given by the 6 o'clock club, a department of the Brotherhood of St. Paul, occurred last night in the parlors of the Lead avenue Methodist church. Mr. E. M. Bullard addressed the gathering on "Christian Socialism."

Tomorrow night at the Casino the girls' basketball team of the "Varsity" will play a game with the girls' team from the Albuquerque Indian school. Both teams have been practicing hard, and a warm contest is anticipated.

The air hose cutter is still at work on the cars in the local yards of the Santa Fe, and almost every morning a number of cars have to undergo repairs. Every effort is being made to apprehend the scoundrel.

A. J. Robertson and family have arrived in the city from Rugby, Col., and will take up their residence in this city. Mr. Robertson is a former governor of Rugby and will engage in business here.

S. E. Busser, superintendent of the Santa Fe reading rooms, left yesterday morning for the west after spending a few days in Albuquerque.
